American Sugar Also Declines.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Cattle-of the presidential election left Wall street in doubt today, judging from the early course of the market. The opening prices showed market ad-vances in the speculative issues, but the first outbreak was followed by heavy offerings which scon wiped out most gains. Then came a renewed demand in smaller volume which largely restored the early slump. Beet Sugar, whose fortunes are linked with the tariff, added seven points to its re-cent decline and American Sugar also Money was off to a percent. Bonds were steady.

Selected issues, such as Canadian Pacific, Union Pacific and Missouri Pacific were advanced sharply during the noon hour with some attength in local transactions wherever change were light.

The market closed strong. Speculation was buoyant in the final hour, gains extending to four points in Union Pacific and St. Paul, and five in Canadian Pacific. Realizing checked the advance for a time, but the prices were established shortly before the close.
